

Other Voices at The Other Side

a monthly series of presentations and readings by local writers, poets and scholars from within our Utica midst

THE OTHER ROBERT FROST

with Eugene Paul Nassar,
professor of English emeritus at Utica College

A talk by one of our favorite guest speakers, whose previous talks on Eliot & Chaucer, Ezra Pound, and Wallace Stevens have delighted our literature-loving audiences. This talk will focus on less familiar work by America's perhaps best-loved poet.

If you missed having a class with Gene in college, you can still benefit from listening to one of the best. No pre-requisites, just bring your inquiring mind.
